(Department of Works, Housing and Urban Development)

RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 29th August 1969

No. 14-2(3)/69-UD.—The Government of India have had under consideration for some time the question of preparing regional (Spatial) Development Plans for inter-state resource regions with a view to promoting the development of such regions on sound and rational lines and to achieving progressively balanced regional development in the country. As a first step towards this objective, Government have, in consultation with the Planning Commission and the concerned State Governments, decided that a regional development plan for the South East Resource Region comprising parts of Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Orissa and West Bengal should be drawn up.

2. For the purpose of preparing the Regional Development plan and for coordinating the various development programmes being undertaken within the region, the Government of India have decided to set up a Planning Organisation consisting of a Coordinating Committee and a Joint Planning Board having the composition given in Annexure to this resolution.

3. The terms of reference of this Planning Organisation will be as follows :—

- (1) to prepare a Regional (Spatial) Development Plan for the South East Resource Region (comprising the districts of Palamau, Hazaribagh, Dhanbad, Ranchi and Singhbhum in Bihar; the districts of Sindhri, Shahdol, Surguja, Raigarh, Bilaspur, Balaghat, Durg, Raipur and Baster in Madhya Pradesh; the districts of Sundargarh, Keonjhar, Mayurbhanj, Sambalpur, Bolangir, Dhankanal, Kalahandi, Koraput and Khondmals in Orissa and the districts of Purulia, Bankura and Asansol Sub-division of the Burdwan district in West Bengal), in collaboration with Central and State Agencies concerned with the development of this region, and to undertake such surveys, studies investigations, etc. as may be considered necessary;
- (2) to coordinate the developments taking place in the different sectors in the South East Resource Region with a view to maximising the benefits derived from such developments;
- (3) to guide the various agencies in the implementation of the Regional Plan in the different sectors and in the different areas of the Region;
- (4) to evaluate the progressive benefits arising from the planned development of the Region; and
- (5) to undertake a review of the Regional Development Plan from time to time with a view to making modifications, where necessary to meet the changing needs and circumstances.

4. The Joint Planning Board will prepare, in the first instance, the regional developmental plan for the region after carrying out such surveys and investigations as may be found necessary and will submit to the Coordinating Committee the Plan and the report together with the issues on which the Joint Planning Board is unable to come to agreed decisions.

The Coordinating Committee will consider the plan and the report and the issues referred by the Board and give its approval/decisions and directions. Issues on which the Coordinating Committee is unable to reach a decision will be referred to the Zonal Council.

ORDER

ORDERED that a copy of the Resolution be communicated to all concerned.

ORDERED also that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for General Information.
